

Ophthalmologist Nanaimo, Vancouver Island

The Island Health Division of Ophthalmology has a position for a general ophthalmologist to join three others at the Nanaimo Regional General Hospital starting July 15, 2019.

Eligible candidates will hold, or be eligible for, full FRCSC in ophthalmic surgery and full licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of B.C. Sub-specialty training would be an asset. On-call responsibility is one in six as it is shared with ophthalmologists in nearby Duncan.

Nanaimo Regional General Hospital (224 acute care beds) enjoys state-of-the-art surgical suites and fluorescein angiography clinic with access to a private surgical centre located adjacent to the hospital. The hospital has full diagnostic capabilities, including a 64-slice CT, MRI, nuclear medicine, a cancer clinic and critical care intensivists and is a UBC Postgraduate Family Practice Residency program site.

The Nanaimo medical community totals over 200 physicians with strong primary care physicians and a full array of skilled specialist colleagues who serve a population of 160,000 and secondary referral services to a population of 250,000.

Nanaimo is a growing, vibrant and family-oriented community that enjoys access to abundant outdoor activities, with proximity to Victoria as well as Vancouver --- a 90 minute ferry or 20-minute seaplane ride away. The community of 90,000 offers a wide variety of cultural and educational opportunities including an 800 seat waterfront theatre, the Vancouver Island University and adjacent renowned private school options.

Nanaimo offers a true West Coast lifestyle with great access to skiing, hiking, mountain biking, surfing, kayaking, and more. With one of the best climates in Canada, and as featured in Outside magazine as one of the top recreation cities in North America, Nanaimo is the ideal location to strike the perfect balance between your personal and professional life.
