

Canadian Society of Ophthalmic Medical Personnel

Friday, June 29, 2012, 0755-1630

Moderators

Gordon Carter & Marc Lafontaine

Objectives

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Understand and discuss techniques in Ultrasound Biomicroscopy
- Understand the changes that can occur with various color deficiencies
- Understand the anatomy of the eyelids and lashes and their relationship to dry eyes
- Understand various surgical approaches to the posterior segment
- Understand and discuss pitfalls of visual field testing
- Discuss issues related to suffering from double vision
- Understand the implications of raised intracranial hypertension
- Understand new techniques in diagnostic testing of the posterior pole

0755 - 0800	Marc Lafontaine & Gordon Carter	Welcome & Introduction to Annual CE Day
0800 - 0845	Gordon Carter	UBM Techniques and Interesting Cases
0845 - 0930	Craig Simms	Colour Vision Changes
0930 - 1015	Carla Barbary	Lids, Lashes and Dry Eye
1015 - 1030	Break
1030 - 1115	Dr Geoff Williams	Vitrectomy Surgeries
1115 - 1200	Jaspreet Grewal	Visual Field Pitfalls
1200 - 1300	Lunch
1300 - 1345	Dr Fiona Costello	Diplopia
1345 - 1445	Dr Fiona Costello	Raised Intracranial Hypertension
1445 - 1530	Carla Barbary	Electrophysiology and the eye
1530 - 1545	Break
1545 - 1630	Donna Bong	Ultrasound: What the Technician Needs to Know

Approved for 7.0 JCAHPO "A" credits