ACCESS FROM PARKING AT TD TOWER

Parking for the Design Exchange is provided by the Toronto-Dominion Centre. The underground parking garage is accessible off King and Wellington Streets.

When on Bay Street, turn west onto Wellington Street, enter TD garage.

Enter and stay on the P1 level and follow signs to the Design Exchange area. (Parking attendants available for directional information).

Take the parking elevator to the Concourse level ("C"), then go through the two black doors located directly opposite the elevator. The doors are labelled "To Main Lobby" along with a wheelchair symbol. To open doors, push the large round silver button to the left of the doors.

Continue to follow the signs and take the elevator to the main lobby.

Once in the lobby of the Ernst & Young Tower, proceed, turn toward the west and toward the main concierge desk and then turn right into the main lobby of the Design Exchange.

For assistance in the Ernst & Young Lobby, contact the Concierge Desk - staffed 24/7.

ACCESS FROM STREET LEVEL

The Design Exchange is located in the historic Toronto Stock Exchange building, just half a block south of King Street West and north of Wellington Street West at 234 Bay Street, now within the Ernst & Young Tower. The accessible entrance is off Wellington Street, just west of the Bay/Wellington intersection. There is a ramp with handrails that proceeds to the entrance of the Ernst and Young tower. Once in the main lobby of the E & Y tower, turn left toward the DX entrance. Proceed through the glass doors into the DX.

ACCESSIBLE DX

The DX is an accessible facility, however, accessible washrooms are located only on the 1st Floor, north side. Elevator access is provided to all floors of the Design Exchange.
