Ophthalmologist

Duncan, Vancouver Island, BC

The Island Health Division of Ophthalmology has a position for a general ophthalmologist to join two others at the Cowichan District Hospital in Duncan, BC for July 1, 2021. Eligible candidates will hold, or be eligible for, full FRCS(C) in ophthalmic surgery and full licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of B.C. Fellowship training would be an asset.

On-call responsibility is one in seven as it is shared with ophthalmologists in nearby Nanaimo.

The Cowichan District Hospital, a 134-bed acute care facility, enjoys an exceptionally collegial atmosphere amongst the general and specialty medical staff. Local specialist services include General and Orthopedic Surgery, Anesthesiology, Urology, Obstetrics and Gynecology, Pediatrics, ENT, Ophthalmology and Radiology. We also anticipate a new hospital build over the next 5 years bringing added inpatient and ICU capacity as well as state-of-the-art equipment and design.

Under the Rural Subsidiary Agreement (and subject to eligibility) incentives include: $10,000 recruitment incentive, up to $15,000 relocation expense reimbursement, $4,222 annual retention payment, 4.2% fee-for-service premium and generous CME ($6000/annum after 4 years in community).

Located in the beautiful Cowichan Valley on Vancouver Island, the City of Duncan enjoys Canada's most temperate climate. The area offers a wide variety of attractions for outdoor enthusiasts including great hiking and biking trails, golfing, sailing, canoeing and ocean kayaking. In addition to many local artisans and attractions, the South Cowichan Valley boasts five top vineyards and wineries. Public education in Duncan is complemented by renowned local private schools and located only 45 minutes south, Victoria also offers excellent educational, cultural and recreational opportunities. Vancouver Island, one of Canada's most livable regions, provides the very best in both urban and rural living. With its rich heritage and vibrant cultural scene this is the perfect place to start your newest adventure.
