

Pediatric Ophthalmologist Specialist Position Department of Ophthalmology, CHEO, Ottawa, Ontario

The CHEO Department of Ophthalmology is affiliated with CHEO, the CHEO Research Institute and the University of Ottawa. Together, we provide outstanding patient care, research, and medical education. The Department provides tertiary eye care to newborns, children and youth of the Ottawa area, as well as those from Eastern Ontario, Western Quebec, Nunavut and parts of Northern Ontario (population of approximately 1.8 million).

The Department of Ophthalmology is seeking an ophthalmologist specialized in Pediatric Ophthalmology & Strabismus. The ideal candidate will hold RCPSC certification in Ophthalmology, a minimum one-year postgraduate fellowship in Pediatric Ophthalmology & Strabismus, and be eligible for full licensure with the College of Physicians & Surgeons of Ontario and CMPA coverage.

The successful candidate will have excellent interpersonal and teaching skills, and will thrive in a close-knit, inter-professional team environment. They will be committed to patient-centred care, continuous improvement and lifelong learning. Preference will be given to candidates interested in contributing to the academic and administrative goals of the Department and University.

Primary Responsibilities of a successful candidate:

- Tertiary level pediatric ophthalmology clinical care at CHEO
- Equitable participation in the general ophthalmology on-call rotation for The Ottawa Hospital and on-call clinic coverage.
- Commitment to Department, Hospital, and University support through an equitable contribution to clinical research, administrative duties, and teaching, including training and supervision of learners at all levels.

Resources:

- The successful candidate will have the opportunity to develop a hospital-based academic practice, engage in teaching, and participate in innovative research and advocacy.
- An academic appointment with the University of Ottawa commensurate with experience and academic accomplishment
- Equitable access to CHEO Department of Ophthalmology clinic and operating room resources, contingent upon sustained fulfillment of support activities
- For interested candidates with the appropriate skill set a partial adult cataract surgery allocation is possible at The Ottawa Hospital. This will require meeting departmental cataract teaching expectation.
